

Goblin Judging Criteria

Goblin Judging

Every Goblin event should have an allocated time where the schools are lined up with car and students for judging.

There will be 5 awards to allocate to teams on the day of an event, below they are listed and a brief description of how best to compete for each award.

BEST PRESENTED TEAM

This will be awarded to the team that are well dressed, with their clothing being coordinated or complimentary of each other's. As a team they are well behaved, refraining from using bad language or unsporting behaviour and they will show a positive attitude towards other teams and people in attendance.

Questions for Judges

Clothing:

1. Is the team wearing uniform? – Yes/ No
2. Are the team smartly dressed/ have they made an effort? – Yes/ No
3. Does the teamwear match the bodywork/theme? – Yes/ No
4. Is the theme consistent throughout all aspects, including portfolio? – Yes/ No

Behaviour:

1. Do the team have a positive attitude towards their team and others? – Yes/ No
2. Are they polite/refrain from using bad language? – Yes/ No

BEST BODYWORK

The best bodywork will show imagination and character and is created by the students. There will be a good use of materials showing different use of creative techniques with a high attention to detail. When talking to the team, they should show a good understanding of the processes used to design and create the bodywork.

Questions for judges

1. Is the bodywork imaginative – Yes/ No
2. Is there a good variation of materials – Yes/ No
3. Has there been a good use of creative techniques (e.g. Papier-mâché) – Yes/ No
4. Good attention to detail – Yes/ No
5. Do the students have a good understanding of the processes used to design and make the bodywork – Yes/ No
6. Was the bodywork created by the students – Yes/ No
7. Is the bodywork different from previous years (Check with staff) – Yes/ No

GREENEST BODYWORK

The bodywork shows obvious use of recycled materials. Upmost effort has been made by the team to make the bodywork as eco-friendly as possible. Judges should talk to the team to gain additional information about their bodywork and whether the team understand the use of recycled materials.

Questions for judges

1. Is the bodywork made from recycled/recyclable materials – Yes/ No
2. Do the team understand the importance of using recycled/recyclable materials – Yes/ No
3. What lengths were taken to gather the materials used (e.g. Was there a defined environmental aim and was it achieved?) – Yes/ No
4. Do the students have a good understanding of the processes used to design and make the bodywork - Yes/ No
 5. Was the bodywork created by the students – Yes/ No
6. Is the bodywork different from previous years (Check with staff) – Yes/ No

SPIRIT OF GREENPOWER

The team who stands out for positive reasons and have a positive attitude in the face of adversity. Alternatively, maybe a team that has shown us fantastic team spirit by helping another team, lending tools, helping them solve their issues etc. We are looking to award a team that promotes teamwork and good relationships with fellow competitors.

 This award is judged throughout the day, not at the goblin parade. This award can be given to exceptional teachers, volunteers or individuals. In the case that it is awarded to a team, they must fit at least one of the criteria listed below. **

Questions for judges

1. Have they been nominated for outstanding behaviour – Yes/ No
 2. Have they competed despite difficulties – Yes/ No
 3. Have they offered assistance to other teams – Yes/ No
4. Have they been respectful of their surroundings (people/venue etc.) – Yes/ No

PORTFOLIO AWARD

The best portfolio – judging based on the guidelines. (See separate sheet.)
